1894. DR. C. NARAYANA REDDY: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) Whether Government will consider it expedient to delink the National Centre for Children's literature from the National Book Trust of India in view of the imperative need for a full-fledged agencey to bestow adequate attention towards the production of literature for children; and

(b) if so, whether Government will consider Hyderabad to be the ideal place for its location, in view of the city's multi-lingual character and also in view of the fact that Andhra Pradesh is the pioneer in establishing Children's Akademi way back in 1976?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. MURLI MANOHAR JOSHI): (a) and (b) No, Sir. The National Centre for Children's Literature is an intergral arm of the National Book Trust. Since its inception in 1993, the Centre has been doing good work in the field of children's literature by setting up of readers' clubs in remote areas, conducting workshops, surveys of readers and publishers, exhibitions, fairs, seminars and the like. The Centre also functions as a complementary wing of the Trust for the Nehru Bal Pustakalaya children's series through identifications of manuscripts, study of need-based areas and conducting of workshops. Being a part of the National Book Trust, it is considered conducive to the proper growth of the National Centre for Children' Literature. As such, there is no proposal to delink the Centre from the National Book Trust.

1895. DR. C. NARAYANA REDDY: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether there are a number of schools under private mangement in the country where mother tongue is not the first language and is given only the status of the second language;

(b) whether a student can avoid study of lusher mother tongue even as the second language in such schools by opting for the special English which is provided

as an alternative subject of study upto tenth standard; and

(c) if so, whether the Central Government will consider to evolve a national policy of making the study of mother tongue compulsory upto tenth standard in all schools both under Government and private management?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. MURLI MANOHAR JOSHI): (a) Yes, Sir. Such schools are mostly unaided private schools.

It is however, correct that every school may not have facilities to provide instructions in mother tongue to all the students, who may come from different parts of the country.

(c) The study of mother tonguetegion-al language is compulsory upto Class-X, in all schools in the country.
